

WHO WE ARE

The Confluentcenter for Creative Inquiry (CCI) is a research center under the Office for Research, Innovation & Impact (RII). CCI is a campus unit dedicated to providing the tools and resources necessary for advancing the University of Arizona's research goals.

Established in 2010 as a means of cultivating cross-disciplinary collaboration, the Confluentcenter encourages interdisciplinary synergies across campus communities, promotes a dynamic intellectual environment, supports creative research and activities and then shares those results with the broader public community.

MISSION

The Confluentcenter convenes scholars from across disciplines, supports relevant interdisciplinary projects, and presents new knowledge to the public in engaging ways.

OUR VISION

The Confluentcenter will become recognized regionally, nationally and internationally as an intellectual hub for creative, interdisciplinary research where the arts, humanities and social sciences intersect all disciplines.

Values

The Confluentcenter values collaborations, connections, diverse perspectives, innovation, and relevance to human challenges.

Diversity

The Confluentcenter strives to advance diversity through supporting students, staff, faculty, scholars who bring diverse and underrepresented perspectives to scholarship, both in the themes they explore and in their own identities.

Impact

The Confluentcenter has supported the following creative, interdisciplinary research initiatives at the University of Arizona.
